I especially love how Lorna weaves wisdom from her own experience into the exploration of tried and true techniques, all from an awakened perspective. One expression of this commitment is a decision Fink made early on that BlackRock would never trade for its own account.

This is the promise of investing the time to understand who you are, why you can. The reason why you are still not attracting clients or making money is because there is yet another karmic, past life, emotional, spiritual, and psychological blockage you need to clear. This is why spontaneous Soul Revival experiences that drastically change our lives often occur after traumatizing events such as a near-death experience, or severe illness.
