October 15, Application Deadline for Winter Start. Islam has been the state religion in Egypt since the amendment of the second article of the Egyptian constitution in the year before which Egypt was recognized as a secular country. When John Kerry speaks about developing religious literacy, he might be taken to mean enhanced alertness to the relationships of dependence that exist between different elements of another tradition - between its authoritative sources, its oral wisdom formulae and its current political concerns born out of its adherents' distinctive experiences of "modernity."

It is a tradition with an impressive lineage: Thucydides, Machiavelli, Hobbes. The principles underlying this system are decidedly Western; not simply in historical origin, but in their philosophical roots, particularly those of representative governments based on popular sovereignty, individual autonomy, and the competitive nature of Western capitalism.
