Stuart Hogarth, from Southern Electric, said engineers were scrutinising the site but insisted there was no danger to the public. The mythic paddock and the stands are the heart of the New Longchamp. The day before the race after flying in from three different parts of the country we hightailed it to the track as quickly as possible.

Finally, straightening down the lane, there is a new view, as everything spreads. As we step onto the track, my horse and I sense both the excitement and potential danger. My stride falls into a rhythm behind the leaders.

I was confident in him winning the race, despite the odds saying. Leave a Reply Cancel reply Your email address will not be published.
