There's something gentle and tender in the lack of urgency, the low rumbling tones, that I miss - and it's this something Mateship With Birds which I'm so nostalgic that Tiffany captures in her portrayal of Harry. View our privacy policy. As I said, I guess I was just expecting more than just accounts of random days from. This is a wonderful little book. Persona Tiffany managed to create an interesting mix of characters and raised some interesting ideas, however Mateship With Birds book to me felt like a jumbled together collection of short stories that reached no real engrossing conclusion. There's sharp observation there - it's delivered in very few words - and it comes with an obvious affection for them and for the humans who live around .
