Little did she know that next victory would involve acquiring the company that belonged to the one man she always wanted for. All the while, the entire town is wondering one thing: Who is the Secret Santa that showed up with special gifts for everyone? The plot was so completely boring with mundane details. I was glad that the town finally got to hear what really happened I was so excited to finally get into the head of Miles to see why he is always so mysterious. With their careers and lives on the line, will Miles and Morgan choose love or ambition? I want to move to this town that knows everything all the time and yet can keep secrets! Kathleen Brooks. As with every other book in this series, often laugh out loud. I started this novella I was so confused.
