The memories of such cannot be held in grateful remembrance, for there is no grace in their gifts. It is well, nay, essential for the progress of the race that the houses of some should be homes for all that is highest and best in literature and the arts, and for all the refinements of civilization, rather than that none should be so. Pittsburgh was given the Carnegie Institute of Technology, and many colleges received large gifts, including the Tuskegee Institute, a school serving African Americans.

Let us in turn consider each of these modes. Frick brought in thousands of strikebreakers to work the steel mills and Pinkerton agents to safeguard. Although many businesses in town refused to serve the strikebreakers, public sentiment outside of Homestead was against the union workers, mostly because they had used violence. He gained a reputation for working hard to keep the trains running on schedule. Our duty is with what is practicable now; with the next step possible in our day were the luxuries have become the necessities of life. Carnegie is buried only a few yards away from union organizer Samuel Gompers another important figure of industry in the Gilded Age.
