City of Kings is thrilling, exciting and gruesome. Very, very special, and I want to know more! There are 6 heroes to choose from, each featuring 12 unique skills and 90 customisable stat points allowing you to specialise in City of Kings, healing, tanking, area control and worker management.

The main characters really are what make this special. That had been my first book by him and I thoroughly enjoyed it. Crucible is the only blooded fortress left, but not for nothin War makes monsters and corpses of us all. The pacing is excellent, the writing is fluid and the chapters are shortish which adds City of Kings the 'just one more chapter' bug.

He will teach you the mechanics of the game and explain how the game engine works. In this regard there's one character who truly shocks and this is in spite of knowing their past deeds.
