We are still that sickening couple that exudes happiness. Being an oddball is an advantage... If you allow it to be. My parents have not wasted their lives. Somuchinterestingdocumentation. I appreciate all they did for me even more as I seek to parent my children the same way. Along with this, whether they knew it or not they showed me the importance of love and caring for others; whether they were family or complete strangers. The greatest test is to overcome trials and tribulation and search to learn from those adverse experiences and grow.
